

Proposal Title	Ukraine Tax Reform Project
Applicant	International Renaissance Foundation
Reserve Fund	President's & Chairman's Reserve
Amount Requested	$100, 000.00
Background (Optional)	In August, the Cabinet of Ministers published a concept paper on tax reform in Ukraine developed by the Ministry of Finance. A draft law encompassing the concept of the tax reform is now under public discussion. The principles of the draft law correspond to the requirements of IMF. At the same time the Parliament Committee on Customs and Tax Police registered an alternative draft law that does not comply with the requirements of IMF and could jeopardise the stability in the country. Both documents are widely criticized and debated at the Parliament and by the experts.
Risks (Optional)	The risks to this project are related to the level of political consolidation within the Parliament to arrange a settlement regarding the tax reform.
Unforeseen Need (250 words)	Currently in Ukrainian Parliament and expert community cannot come to the settlement regarding the concept of the future tax reform. The model of the tax reform determines the State Budget of Ukraine for 2016 fiscal year. At the initiative of Georges Soros IRF contracted the Messina Group to provide high-level consulting and develop necessary recommendations and communication strategy for the tax reform.
Activities Proposed (500 words)	IRF contracted the Messina Group to provide consulting services to the Ministry of Finance of Ukraine regarding the following: political validation strategy for tax reform in Ukraine, including preparation of relevant materials, completion of public opinion research, and ongoing consultation on public statements.
